

Beauty looks we love now

Trae Bodge, co-founder of Three Custom Color Specialists, gives us the scoop

Blake looks fresh with pale pink lips

"Blake Lively's rose lipstick is so pretty — the dusty shade is a flattering nude, but the shimmer makes it so youthful," says Trae Bodge, creative director and co-founder of Three Custom Color Specialists, a beauty company in NYC. "Plus, it has apricot undertones, which complement and brighten all skin."

Do it: Apply color to both top and bottom lips, blot, then reapply. "It doubles the wear," says Bodge.

L&S STYLE TIP
"The easiest way to select a natural-looking pink lipstick like Blake's is to match it to the color of your gums," advises Bodge.

Hayden is luminous with a faux glow

"Hayden Panettiere's glow looks flawless thanks to bronzer with a pink [rather than orange] hue — the rosiness mimics the color her skin would be if she had a real tan," says Bodge. "She also applied it where the sun hits — the forehead, cheeks and chin — so it's believable."

Do it: Apply bronzer by tracing the shape of a 3 on the right side of the face and a reverse 3 on the left. Start on the forehead and sweep inward along the cheekbone and then down along the jawline.

Shimmer bronzer that's used all over the face looks too shiny. Instead, apply it just on the cheeks, like Hayden, to look radiant.

Mila is smoldering with smoky eyes

"Mila Kunis' almost-sheer, smoky shadow is so modern and sexy," says Bodge. "Gray is a neutral, so it flatters all eye colors, but shimmer makes it anything but boring."

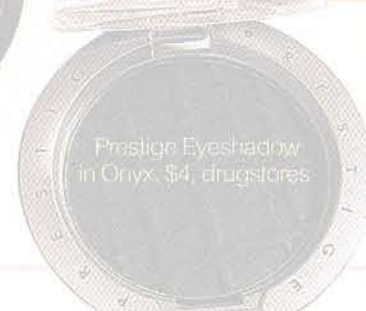

Do it: Line inside rims with a dark-gray pencil. Lightly smudge metallic-gray shadow around the eye, framing top and bottom lids.

For those with smaller eyes, skip the eyeliner to get a more wide-eyed look.

Eva looks sweet with peach blush

"This peachy blush is so fresh and flirty," says Bodge, who adds that the shade is universally flattering — the pink hues warm up skin with yellow undertones, while the coral tint downplays ruddiness in fair and dark skin.

Do it: Smile, then apply a powder blush in a circular motion on the apple of each cheek.
