Looking like the next American Idol is now easier, thanks to Me by Mezghan, a cosmetics line from the show's head makeup artist, Mezghan Hussainy. The collection's newest product, the Luminous Me primer and foundation duo (shown above), starts selling today on QVC.

"I was tired of mixing products to achieve different looks," explains Hussainy. "I wanted to create a line that was versatile, easy-to-use and made for the girl on the go." That she did: The two-in-one makeup moisturizes, soothes skin and provides flawless coverage.
